TO CREDITORS

RVZTY PTY LTD (formerly known as Lul Technology Pty Limited)
(Administrator Appointed)
ACN 008 594 509 (the “Company”)

As you are aware, I was appointed Voluntary Administrator of the Company on 24 April 2019.

Orders made

On 20 May 2019, on my application, the Supreme Court of NSW (“Court”) made orders including extending the convening period for the second meeting of creditors of the Company to 20 June 2019 (“Orders”).

The Orders are attached.

In accordance with order 5 of the Orders, this circular (and the Orders) is provided to creditors and will be posted on my website: www.farnsworthshepard.com.au

Background to Orders

At the Creditors Meeting convened for, and held on, 7 May 2019 (“First Meeting”), creditors resolved that an application be made with the Court to extend the convening period for the second creditors meeting pursuant to s439A(6) of the Corporations Act 2001.

This was to allow adequate time for the Company to lodge all outstanding tax lodgements with a view of propounding a Deed of Company Arrangement.

Effect of Orders

The Orders generally provide that:

1. The period within which I am to convene the second meeting of creditors of the Company is extended to 20 June 2019;
2. I can hold the second meeting of creditors at any time before 20 June 2019, or within 5 business days after 20 June 2019;
3. Notice of the Orders is to be given to creditors – which is done by this circular; and
4. Liberty is granted:
 - a. to me to apply for any further extension of the convening period – which would delay the holding of the second meeting if I exercised such liberty and orders were made; and

- b. to any creditor to vary or discharge the Orders – provided they can show sufficient interest and apply to the Court on two business days' notice to me, as Administrator.

A notice of meeting will be provided to creditors at least five (5) business days prior to the date of the meeting.

Please contact my office should you require further information. There is also information about this voluntary administration on my firm's website: www.farnsworthshepard.com.au.

Yours faithfully,
RVZTY PTY LTD

THE COURT:

1. Orders that, pursuant to section 439A(6) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (the Act), the period within which the second plaintiff must convene the second meeting of the creditors of the first plaintiff pursuant to section 439A of the Act (the Convening Period), be extended up to and including 20 June 2019.

2. Orders that, pursuant to section 447A of the Act, Part 5.3A of the Act is to operate such that the meeting of creditors of the first plaintiff pursuant to section 439A of the Act can be held by the second plaintiff at any time during, or within 5 business days after the end of, the Convening Period (as extended by order 1 above), provided that eligible creditors of the first plaintiff are given reasonable notice of the meeting.

3. Orders that, pursuant to s 447A(1) of the Act, Part 5.3A of the Act is to operate such that the requirement on the second plaintiff, pursuant to ss 75-225(1) and 75-15 of the Insolvency Practice Rules (Corporations) 2016 (Cth) (the IPR), to issue notices of the meeting of creditors of the first plaintiff under s 439A of the Act (the Notice) will be validly given to creditors of the first plaintiff by reason of the following steps having been taken not less than five business days prior to the date of the proposed meeting:

(a) where the second plaintiff:

(i) has an email address for a creditor, by sending the Notice by email to each such creditor;
(ii) does not have an email address for a creditor but has a postal address for the creditor, by sending the Notice by posting a copy of it to the postal address for each such creditor;
(iii) does not have an email address for a creditor or a postal address, by sending or communicating the Notice to the creditor in any other way provided for by the Act or the IPR; and

(b) by causing the Notice to be published on the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) published notices website at <https://insolvencynotices.asic.gov.au>.

4. Orders that the second plaintiff inform ASIC of these orders, within 48 hours of the date of these orders.

5. Orders that the second plaintiff inform known creditors (including the persons claiming to be creditors) of the first plaintiff of these orders by:

(a) causing a notice to be published on the website <http://farnsworthshepard.com.au>, no later than 48 hours from the date of these orders;
(b) sending such notice electronically to the email addresses of the creditors for whom the second plaintiff has an email address, no later than 48 hours from the date of these orders; and
(c) sending such notice to the postal address or facsimile number, or otherwise as provided for by the Act or the IPR, to any creditors in respect of whom the second plaintiff does not have an email address, no later than 72 hours from the date of these orders.

6. Grants liberty to apply:

(a) to the plaintiffs in respect of any further extensions or variation of the Convening Period (as extended by order 1 above) at any time before that period expires; and
(b) to any person claiming to be interested, including any creditor of the first plaintiff, to make any application as he, she or it may be advised to vary or discharge these orders on 2 business days' notice to the plaintiffs and to the Court.

7. Orders that the plaintiffs' costs of this application be costs of the administration of the first plaintiff.

8. Orders that these orders be entered forthwith.

9. Order that the Exhibit be returned.
